No 2048

Small of a Letter from Milan, of Dec. 29.

HE Conduct of the Court of Sardinia in the present Juncture, seems every Day more and more mysterious. After publishing the Manifesto, or rather the Memorial, to set forth his Right and Title to the Milanese; and after it was rumour'd that he was going to support that Right the Sword, what has follow'd but an unexpected Calm, which has silenc'd the Arguments of the most politive Politicians, not only here but even at Turin; for they write thence, that the Views, Designs, and Projects of the Court are absolutely impenetrable. Some think that the Troops will act, others that they will not stir: some imagine that the King of Sardinia is in Alliance with the Queen of Hungary, and others will have it that he is in concert with the House of Bourbon. But the Thing which quite demolishes such a Supposition, is to see that the Government still maintains the same Correspondence with the Court of Turin as heretofore, that the Marquis Bartholomei, who arriv'd two Days ago from Vienna, is going thither with the Character of Envoy from the Duke of Lorraine, and that the Dispositions making here for our Defence are not of such a Nature, as if we were afraid of being attack'd from that Quarter. The Duke of Modena is fortifying his Places, and particularly the City of Mirandola. This Prince copies the Politicks of the Court of Sardinia to perfection, since nobody can yet be certain what Course he will steer.

Jan. 5. Since we receiv'd the King of Sardinia's Manifesto, wherein he asserts the Rights of the Savoy Family to the Duchy of Milan, People don't talk so quietly as they did a Month ago of that Prince's pretended Alliance. 'Tis suspected, on the contrary, that the Court of Turin acts in Concert with the Queen of Hungary, and that his Troops are not design'd for the Conquest of the Milanese, but only to take Possession of it, if need be, to keep out the Spaniards; but the enigmatical Proceedings of that Court, are the chief Foundation for this Supposition.

The Speaker's SPEECH to his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant-General, and General Governor of Ireland, when he presented to him the Bills lately mention'd in this Paper for the Royal Assent, And then the Commons adjourn'd to the 18th instant.

May it please your Grace!

I Attend by Command of the Commons to present to your Grace the two Bills of Supply by them granted to his Majesty.

It is a great Pleasure and Satisfaction to them to find, that his Majesty approves of the Ways they thought most honourable for the Support of his Majesty's Government and the Ease of his Subjects; they are assured, that such Measures as most conduce to those Ends, will always recommend them to the Favour of your Grace, and are persuaded, that your Grace will represent to his Majesty the Cheerfulness and Zeal, with which they have agreed to raise these Supplies.

By this fresh Instance of their Unanimity added to their former Conduct, the Commons hope his Majesty has ample Testimony of their Duty and Affection to his Majesty, his Royal Family and Government, on the Continuance of all which Blessings the Security of their Religion and Civil Rights depend.

The Care and Vigilance which your Grace has on every Occasion shewn for his Majesty's Service, mixed with so great Tenderness for his People, does fully answer those Expectations which the Commons cherish'd under the Administration of a Person descended from a Family long conspicuous by their strict Adherence to the Succession of the Crown in his Majesty's Royal Family, as likewise to the Liberties of the Subject.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.
ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakness, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever, so that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well difficult to cure, as is certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hedick Heats, a Taken Dropsy, or Confus-tion of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.
All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diastasis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Urine, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamic Restrictive ELECTUARY, now published for a general Cure after having for many Years been experience'd to cure fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble, as also other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, Urinary Passages, which almost infallibly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.
This transcendent BALSMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Inder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthening Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out, all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will most agreeably be surpris'd at it.
When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and All who ever took it for any of the above-mentioned have readily declared.
The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to procure a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Rastell's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clements Church-yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will presently know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.
Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary.
